Today was the first day of three days of 8yh annual conference of AOGIN india 2017 which was being organized by organizing chairperson prof H.P.Gupta and organizing secretary prof Nish Singh teher was grand inauguration ceremony with chief guest shri Brijesh Pathak guest of honor prof .L b bhatt vice chancellor of medical university and shri SS upadhaya legal advisor to governor of uttar Pradesh.

The chief guest supported the theme of conference which is Eradication of cervical cancer and appreciated the work of AOGIN INDIA Prof MLB BHATT who himself radiation oncologist also gave boost to the movement of cervical cancer prevention and said more cervical cancer screening camp should be organized in the city. Shri SS upadhyay also gave his blessing to the organizing team.

There were 5 workshops during the day, the star workshop was community screening workshop with 200 ASHA WORKERES who are invited and given information on how to spread awareness about cervical cancer prevention. Prof Enriquito Lu from USA with other Indian faculty conducted the workshop with ASHA’S enjoy.

Colposcopy workshop was conducted by Dr Partha basu from France and AOGIN INDIA president Dr Neeraja batla in this workshop different methods of diagnosis of cancer and pre cancer was discussed.

Another surgical video workshop was conducted by Dr Adeola Olaitan from UK and SHALINI RAJARAM from DELHI. In this workshop modern methods of cervical cancer treatment discussed through video session including laproscopic and robotic surgery.

Fourth workshop about cervical cancer screening by cytology and HPV testing by Dr Suzanne garland from Australia and Dr priya Abraham from vellore and Dr sandip mathur from AIIMS.

One traning of trainers on colposcopy for diagnosis of cervical cancer was conducted by Dr Theresa freeman from UK and Dr saritha shamsunder from delhi.

Cancer awareness rally was organized from clark’s awadh to DGHS pffice and return with 200 ASHA workers to spread cervical awareness.