INVITATION

Annual Debate Competition organized by Physiology society 2018 - 19

We are pleased to inform you that “Physiology Society” is organizing the “Annual Debate Competition” on the topic “Peer pressure is essential for overall growth and development” (सहभागियों में प्रतिस्पर्धा उनके सर्वांगीण विकास के लिए आवश्यक है)” on March 02nd, 2019 at 12:00 Noon in Kalam Center, Room No. – 222.

Physiology society endeavors to create awareness amongst the students on various issues and provides platform for the budding doctors to freely exchange their opinion & voice their views on relevant topics.

It would be a great honor if you along with your faculty members could grace the occasion and bless the students.

Thanking you
