

Community Mental & Physical Health Camp organized under the Center for Advance Research, Training and Services (CARTS) at Sarvan Nagar, Bijnaur on November 18th, 2016

Mental, Physical, Orthopedic, Dental, and ENT services were provided in the camp. Prof. SC Tiwari HOD, DGMH, Prof. Santosh Kumar, Dr. Manish Chandra, Asst. Prof. ENT, Dr. Bhupendra Singh & Dr. Nisha M Pandey Asst. Prof, DGMH Senior Residents from Dept. of Orthopedics Surgery, ENT, Geriatric Mental Health and Dental Science and Participants of Skill Development Program attended the program and actively participated in the camp by providing their services wherever required. More than 200 elderly benefitted from the camp.

Health Camp CARTS on 22/12/17 Urban area Ram Leela ground, Chinhat Bazar, Lucknow

A total of 297 individuals benefited from the camp. Prof. SC Tiwari has delivered a talk about mental health problems in old age to the villagers. Prof. Santosh Kumar, from the Dept of Orthopedics, was also there and has given free consultation to more than 108 elderly. A team of mental health professionals including psychiatrists, psychologists, and social workers along with physicians, gynecologists, orthopedic surgeons, ENT residents, dentists along with Yoga therapists, physiotherapists, and dieticians were also there for free check-ups and consultations. The technical staff noted the socio-demographic and other details of all participants. A total of 250 participants were the beneficiary. They have received free health check-ups, consultations, and medicines as per their need.