

Best Practices

Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology

Academics

1. Use of skill lab and checklists for competency based training for undergraduates and postgraduates
2. Provide early clinical exposure to undergraduates
3. Monthly formative assessment with feedback for undergraduates
4. Inclusion of soft skills(attitude & communication) in teaching program
5. Evaluation of soft skills by OSCE for undergraduates and postgraduates
6. Conducting monthly PG academic programs for entire state og postgraduates
7. International webinars for postgraduates

Clinical & Patient care

1. Comprehensive care including chemotherapy and all types of surgical facilities under one roof for all types of genital cancer patients in government set up
2. Basic & Advanced infertility treatment in government facility
3. Advanced facilities for fetal care in high risk pregnancy in government set up
4. Intensive care of critically ill obstetric patients
5. Promotion and provision of post partum IUCD, which is landmark approach by government of India for population control and family welfare to all postpartum women

Cultural/ Community Service

- Cultural & literary activities are organized for postgraduates at regular intervals
- Undergraduates and postgraduates are involved in Community services for international women's day, GDM day, World diabetes day, Cancer awareness, population stabilization fortnight & Breast feeding week