

Press Release

The Department of Ophthalmology, K.G. Medical University, Lucknow was chosen by the Academic and Research Committee of All India Ophthalmological Society as the study centre for Refresh Course for Post Graduate Ophthalmology training. This is the third such course.

Approximately 80 Post Graduates from UP, Rajasthan, Bihar, MP Chattisgarh & Uttarakhand will benefit from this course. The training format has lectures and hands on training.

The importance of this training course is evident from the fact that Dr. Rajneesh Dube, Principal Secretary, Medical Education agreed to be the Chief Guest. The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. MLB Bhatt blessed the occasion, highlighting the importance of continuous learning.

Chairman AIOS-ARC Dr. Partha Biswas and Member ARC Central Zone Dr. Amit Porwal were present. They emphasised the impact of such training courses in bringing ophthalmic education at par in all institutions across India.

Prof. Vinita Singh, HOD and course director Department Of Ophthalmology introduced the course, emphasizing that all subspecialties of Ophthalmology were covered in depth.

Dr. Namrata Sharma, Dr. P.Sharma, Dr. P.K.Pandey, Dr. Partha Biswas, Dr. A. Porwal, Dr. Santosh G.Honavar, Dr. Kavita Kumar, Dr. Vivek Som, Dr. Anita Sethi were invited faculty from various Ophthalmic Centres across the country.