

Press Release

Today chairman of the Indian resuscitation council professor Chakra Rao with professor Moid visited to KGMU. He has started Compression Only Life support COLS for layperson and BCLS and CCLS for health care professionals. He met with our honourable vice chancellor professor ML Bhatt, Student Dean welfare professor G.P.Singh and our head of department of Anaesthesia professor Anita Malik. In this occasion governing council member of ISA professor Virendra Sharma and past President of ISA professor Brigadier Prabhaker were present .

After permission from our vice chancellor we have started COLS .BCLS and CCLS training at KGMU of Indian origin.

Professor Rajni Gupta CRTC director and our CRTC Instructor trained various students of KGMU.

23 October we will celebrate world heart restart day. In which CPR will be taught to layperson all over country.

This training Will be free of cost for all layperson only health care professionals will pay cost of manual.

Those who wants to register send their name on rgkgmu@gmail.com or message at 9839288980.

Thanking you Sir kind regard

Prof. Rajni Gupta

Department of Anaesthesia

Mob. 9839288980