

4th UPOA SPINE CONCLAVE 2018

New Insight in Research Diagnosis & Patient Care

Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, K.G. Medical University, Lucknow

(25/08/18, Saturday, 9 AM – 5 PM)

Venue- Hotel Clarks Avadh, Lucknow

Press release

The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, K.G. Medical University, Lucknow in collaboration with Lucknow Orthopaedic Society conducted a Spine Conclave on 25th Aug, 2018 as a Special Course of UP Orthopaedic Association. The theme of the conclave was “New insights in Research, Diagnosis and Patient Care”

There were more than 100 delegates, from all over the state who attended this conclave. These were the young orthopaedic surgeons who aspire to become spinal surgeons and are interested in managing Spinal ailments. The guest faculty involved Dr. Anil Jain, Dr. Jaiswal from New Delhi, Dr. Arvind Kulkarni, Dr. Ram Chaddha, Dr. S K Srivastava from Mumbai and Dr. S K Saraf from Varanasi. They have discussed the most up to date, clinically relevant and evidence based information on spine, spinal diseases and deformities. The highlights of discussion were on current trends in fracture spine & spinal cord injury, role of stem cell in spinal cord injury, when and how to operate in common spinal ailments, causes of low back pain due to spondylitis and disc prolapse, principles of correction of anomalies in curvatures of spine and management strategies in tuberculosis spine.

Spine conclave was inaugurated by Prof. MLB Bhatt, Honorable Vice chancellor, King George’s Medical University, Lucknow. Prof. U.K. Jain, Prof. OP Singh, Patrons of the Department were present. President and Secretary of UPOA, President and Secretary of LOS and many distinguished Orthopaedic and Neurosurgeons of Lucknow graced the occasion by their presence. Prof GK Singh, Organizing Chairman, Prof. RN Srivastava, Course Director and Dr. Shahwali Ullah, organizing secretary were complimented by Hon’ble VC for organizing such an excellent academic feast. Hon’ble VC thanked the audience for the applause he was given for receiving the prestigious DR BC Roy National award. He mostly humbly stated that the award was actually not only his, but of each and every teacher, staff and employee of KGMU and dedicated it to his teachers who were also present at the occasion.