KING GEORGE'S MEDICAL UNIVERSITY

UTTAR PRADESH, LUCKNOW

KGMU Student Council

1. OVERVIEW

The establishment of a student council plays an integral and important role in the student community and is also an important stake holder of the University. Student councils provide a representative structure through which students can debate issues of concern and undertake initiatives of benefit to the university and the wider community. Students have a voice and a contribution to the university.

The purpose of the Student Council is to serve as the effective communication medium between the administration and students. Even though there is a fair chance for every student to communicate at any time with the administrative officials, the Student Council acts as an interactive body to facilitate at the primary level of communication. The Student Council also assists in planning and development of various cultural, sports, social, recreational and educational activities of students in the institution. The Student Council provides scope to contribute in the development of students' leadership skills, program planning and volunteering.

It is important that the students must be given the opportunity to express their views on issues of concern to them in the university. It is equally important that they are listened to and encouraged to take an active part in promoting the aims and objectives of the university. The guidelines mentioned in this manual are intended to provide practical guidance to student council members in the establishment and operation of the student council.

A Student Council is a group of elected and volunteer students working together with an adult advisor within the framework of a constitution or bylaws to provide a means for student expression and assistance in the university affairs and activities.

Through projects and activities, the student council works to:

- 1) Promote Citizenship
- 2) Promote Scholarship
- 3) Promote Leadership
- 4) Promote Human Relations
- 5) Promote Cultural Values

1.1 PROMOTE CITIZENSHIP

- By supporting and further developing democracy as a way of life.
- By involving students in meaningful, purpose-oriented activities.
- By helping each student develop a sincere regard for the order appropriate to this democratic society.
- By leading each individual in developing a sense of personal responsibility and earned self respect.

- By example through teaching the processes and procedures of a democracy.
- By encouraging desirable attitudes and the continuous upward development of valued patterns of good citizenship.
- By providing a forum for student opinions, interests and desires so these may be understood by the entire student body, faculty, administration and community.
- By honestly reflecting and interpreting the student viewpoint.

1.2 PROMOTE SCHOLARSHIP

- By contributing to the total educational growth of all students in the university.
- By encouraging highest standards of scholarship and positive student involvement in learning and thinking.
- By providing experience in genuine problem-solving procedures.
- By providing training and experiences in the skills and techniques of good citizenship and leadership to prepare articulate citizens and leaders for a progressing society.

1.3 PROMOTE LEADERSHIP

- By providing young people with the power and right to speak and, especially, the power, right and privilege of being heard by those in authority.
- By avoiding the commercial or cultural exploitation of students.
- By providing coordination of student activities with constant evaluation in terms of the selected purposes.
- By promoting opportunities for leadership among student body members.
- By utilizing the ideas and support of students in solving relevant problems in the university.

1.4 PROMOTE HUMAN RELATIONS

- By helping create harmonious relationships among KGMU faculty, administration, student body, working staff and the community.
- By providing organized services to the university in the interest of the general welfare.
- By communicating purposes, activities and the other positive elements of university life through mass media to the entire community.
- By helping young people further realize the genius and dignity of each individual.

1.5 PROMOTE CULTURAL VALUES

- By sparking university loyalty, pride, patriotism and individual student development.
- By providing real experiences in group development and human understandings.
- By helping students earn and protect individual rights and responsibilities.
- By selecting projects and activities which seek to achieve purposes which are significant in the life of the university community.
- By helping each student reach maximum educational growth and development.

2. OBJECTIVES OF STUDENT COUNCIL

- 1) To initiate, implement, and complete projects and activities which will be of help to the university, the students, the faculty, the administration and the community.
- 2) To develop and provide opportunities for leadership and service in the university.
- 3) To encourage personal growth of leaders through participation in district, state and national meetings and organizations.
- 4) To provide a living workshop of democratic processes, through such activities as elections, participation in a constitutional representative assembly, etc.
- 5) To contribute to the educational experiences of students by providing them with a positive involvement in the university, with widened areas of responsibilities and with more direct participation in organizing and implementing activities.
- 6) To promote respect for law and order and general welfare of the university and community.
- 7) To promote an awareness of human relations, of power structures and how one effectively operates within them. These objectives are realistically approached through increasing avenues of cooperation among the administration, faculty and students.
- 8) To improve understanding between and within groups through interaction and communications.
- 9) To develop student potential and encourage to make a well-informed, honest, interested and active citizenship.
- 10) To develop not only leadership abilities within the youth of today, but also leadership for the community, state and nation of tomorrow. In this process, it is also the objective to develop an awareness of good leadership qualities, hopefully, for a more informed, concerned and active citizenry of tomorrow.
