Dear All,

Each year on World AIDS Day (December 1) we take time to reflect upon the worldwide impact of the HIV/AIDS epidemic as we remember the millions we've lost over the past four decades. We evaluate our achievements over the past years, and pledge to work in even more inclusive and innovative ways over the coming year.

In this year Department of Medical Surgical Nursing, KGMU College of Nursing Lucknow has planned to organize a webinar on the AIDS day on the theme "Ending the HIV/AIDS Epidemic through Resilience and Impact; A Nursing perspective", which aims to provide the current status of HIV community, challenges in controlling the HIV epidemic and the impact of new challenges including COVID -19 and various programmes in HIV community across the world.
